AT the Court at St. James's the 5th Day of February, 1750.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Lord Chancellor, Lord Chamberlain,
Lord Preſident, Duke of Bedford,
Lord Privy Seal, Duke of Newcaſtle.

WHEREAS upon Wedneſday the 16th Day of January laſt, and at other Times, great Numbers of a falſe, malicious, ſcandalous and ſeditious printed Paper, intitled, Conſtitutional Queries, earneſtly recommended to the ſerious Conſideration of every true Briton, were by the Penny-Poſt, and other Ways ſecretly ſent and diſperſed to and amongſt his Majeſty's Subjects in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, in which are contained many moſt falſe and injurious Reflections on his Majeſty: And whereas both Houſes of Parliament have taken into Conſideration the dangerous Tendency of the ſaid infamous Libel, and conceiving the moſt juſt Indignation againſt the Author, Printers and Publiſhers thereof, have by their unanimous Reſolution declared, That the ſaid printed Paper is a falſe, malicious, ſcandalous, infamous and ſeditious Libel, containing the moſt falſe, audacious and abominable Calumnies and Indignities upon his Majeſty, and the moſt preſumptuous and wicked Inſinuations, that our Laws, Liberties and Properties, and the excellent Conſtitution of this Kingdom, are in Danger under his Majeſty's legal, mild and gracious Government, with Intent to inſtill groundleſs Suſpicions and Jealouſies into the Minds of his Majeſty's good Subjects, and to alienate their Affections from his Majeſty and his Royal Family. And that in Abhorrence and Deteſtation of ſuch abominable and ſeditious Practices, the ſaid printed Paper be burnt by the Hands of the common Hangman, in the New Palace-Yard, Weſtminſter, on Friday the 25th Day of January laſt, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon, and that the Sheriff of Middleſex do attend at the ſaid Time and Place, and cauſe the ſame to be burnt there accordingly. And in order that the Author, Printers and Publiſhers of the ſaid falſe, ſcandalous and ſeditious Libel, may not eſcape the Puniſhment due to their Crimes, both Houſes of Parliament have, by their ſeveral Addreſſes, humbly deſired his Majeſty, That he will be graciouſly pleaſed to give immediate Orders, that the moſt effectual Means be taken for diſcovering the Author, Printers and Publiſhers of the ſaid Libel, and for bringing the ſaid Author, Printers and Publiſhers to condign Puniſhment. His Majeſty having taken the ſame into his Royal Conſideration, and in order to comply with the ſaid Addreſſes, and that ſo great a Crime may not go unpuniſhed, and to deter others from the like Practices, doth therefore, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, hereby order, direct and command all his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, and all other Civil Magiſtrates whatſoever, to make diligent Search and Inquiry after the Author, Printers and Publiſhers of the ſaid Infamous Libel; and that they do apprehend and ſeize the ſaid Perſons, and give proper Information thereof, that the ſaid Offenders may be puniſhed according to the utmoſt Rigour of the Law. And his Majeſty doth hereby ſtrictly charge and command all his loving Subjects, that they do uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to diſcover and apprehend the ſaid Offender or Offenders. And for the Encouragement of all Perſons to be diligent and induſtrious in their Endeavours to make ſuch Diſcovery; His Majeſty doth hereby promiſe and declare, That any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall diſcover the Author, Printers or Publiſhers, or any of them, of the ſaid Infamous Libel, ſo as ſuch Offender or Offenders be convicted of the ſaid Offences, or of any of them, ſhall have and receive, for every ſuch Offender ſo diſcovered and convicted as aforeſaid, the following Rewards, viz. For the Diſcovery of the Author thereof the Sum of One Thouſand Pounds; for the Diſcovery of each of the Printers thereof the Sum of Two Hundred Pounds; and for the Diſcovery of each of the Publiſhers thereof the Sum of Fifty Pounds: For the Payment of which ſaid ſeveral Rewards, for every ſuch reſpective Offender ſo diſcovered and convicted, his Majeſty hath given the neceſſary Orders to the Lords Commiſſioners of his Treaſury.
